

November Minutes

Absent: Susan Cox

Call to order at 7:00

Began with prayer and a rather long study session focused on the impact of our transitional ministry. The consensus was that while we have a long way to go, we have also gone a long way.

No action items were advanced from any report.

The vestry voted to accept the September and October minutes as revised. Motion by Jim Beyer.
Several seconds heard. No objections.

The vestry received and accepted the treasure's report. Note that this is the month before the vestry meeting on the budget. The probability of an unbalanced budget is looming. Motion to accept Mike McCrohan, several seconds heard. Passed.

The vestry moved into executive session.
